Last week, Kendra Wilkinson, the former star of MTV's "The Girls Next Door" left her job as the only black toon on a hit reality show to declare that she had found "a hero in the black community" in President Barack Obama. Over the weekend, Geraldo Rivera said that the whole black community was being played, calling out left-wing media for the way they continue to stir up "fake outrage" over black folks. "Black America is being played," Rivera said. "Here you have a e79caf774b
