“With the might of the Wind and Sun, I will save you.” The end of the Fable Age is coming, but for only a handful of people—their life-force and unique power, the Fables. Players once again find themselves in the deadly land of Kitaria, searching for a way to escape and return home. Many of the Fables you once knew will have vanished from the world. Facing death on the Kitaria-dam, a plane that will crash and kill everyone on board, you search for a way out. During the journey, you can use the plot twists and twists of luck that will change your destiny. To progress, you will need to obtain the Power Spheres scattered across Kitaria.

Q: How to show image from imageview without saving in gallery I want to load the image from my web server and want to display in my ImageView. I am able to do this with using Picasso. But when i store it on the Gallery or gallery, it will not save the image. I want to load the image from the server or gallery without saving the image. Picasso.with(context) .load("url") .fit() .centerCrop() .transform(new TintTransformation(0xfffff)) .placeholder(R.drawable.logo) .error(R.drawable.default) .into(image); Please help me.. A: I think that you are not setting the new TintTransformation(0xfffff) correctly. You need to remember that 0xFFFFF is a hex value, and should be interpreted as a color. So, it should be: TintTransformation tintTransformation = new TintTransformation(0xFFFFF); Picasso.with(context).load("url").fit().centerCrop().transform(tintTransformation).placeholder(R.drawable.logo) Q: Detecting and starting a non-background thread? I'm writing a program that can run multiple threads. One of these threads is non-background and I'd like to be able to tell when it's started (due to a UI command) so I can start other threads. For this, I've created an enumeration of threads and I thought this would work:

What's new:

Description : The Kitaria Fable was an alien species from a tribe of purple Gnomes that lived in the forest that surrounded Gibbet Glen. The Kitaria Fable was an average sized squirrel that was blue in colour with yellow eyes. Their facial features were like that of a Cat's and their body were as well. It had a subtle, high pitched shrill sound that it made by its nostrils when it was angry or excited. This sound was normally used to communicate by its members, because there were species of animals and birds that would learn to scare or drive away other species by using their music. This had been a vital technology for the Kitaria tribe for over thousands of years and they employed this technology to communicate with each other and the other species that lived in their lands. The Kitaria Fable can communicate with the other species by using his snout. From his snout, he learned and saw how to communicate to other species with vibration to navigate and commune with them, and thus he can understand very well about a subject if he listens and watches another species intently. Description The Kitaria Fable was an alien species from a tribe of purple Gnomes that lived in the forest that surrounded Gibbet Glen.
