Rushdown Revolt is an electric, combo centric, platform fighter which brings power-up, recovery, and dodge in a way that makes it feel like a completely different game to play. The addition of Combo Combustion & Spark Balancing, a unique Spark mechanic which allows players to avoid combo's from the in-game Danger Zone and preserve a good amount of their combo meter, make Rushdown Revolt the most electric, combo centric, and expressive fighting game since Melee! It's the most electric and fun platform fighter I have played in many years. The combos can be sniped in a matter of a few millis, as well as made to launch you into the stratosphere! Some of the characters are extremely fun to play, with some of the fastest and most aggressive combo's in the game, the combat is lightning fast with a high skill cap. Vortex Rollback is the very best way to play the game in the west, whether you have a console or a Steam version! The most electric, combo centric and expressive fighting game since Smash is now FREE TO PLAY on Steam! ✔ Unique "Spark" Mechanic For Electric Combos ✔ 10 Heroes w/ Different Styles & Skill Caps ✔ 90+% Positive on Steam w/ 1,100 Reviews ✔ Play w/

Up To 8 Friends Online ✔ Super Active, Friendly Discord Community "Easily the most innovative platform fighter since Melee. An incredibly deep, rich, and sick gameplay experience. Highly recommended." "This game is incredible, you will not regret trying it I assure you. It's Melee on crack, and incredibly fun. The combos are fluid, feel amazing, and have a high skill ceiling. Nothing to lose!" "Legit the best platform fighter on the market. Super fast and aggro matches with spark canceling." Ignite your spark with the most electric, combo-centric and expressive fighting game. Our active Discord community is the perfect place to find your next battle! A Good Prince is a collaborative platformer where players can map, choose colours, and challenge each other across multiple worlds. There are no set levels, instead, every level is procedurally generated and connected using a unique mechanic: The Prince randomly moves through the level, and he can explore any area. If a path is not already open, he will randomly go in that direction and explore. In order to explore somewhere, he needs to hop onto a beam. The Prince will hop onto beams if there is a path, he will also happily walk over existing objects. Lethal Boxes are randomly generated objects that can kill the Prince if he is on it. The Prince can avoid lethal boxes by hopping onto a beam on their side, if it is on a beam the Prince can jump off and then continue to explore that area. In each level, the Prince can unlock health and power ups. The power ups all take effect instantly, while the health pickups only work for a short time. If the Prince collects enough health and power ups, he becomes Mega-Wu. After that, he is invincible and can run through and destroy everything. Even though the Prince cannot die, he can lose all of his power ups, which is dangerous as they help the Prince survive. This is why it is encouraged to stay on the right side of the beams, as it will help prevent the Prince from losing health and power ups. Content: • Maps: Choose the map type, characters, sounds, goals, colours, and difficulty. • Worlds: Add scenes to the map, including a title screen and a death screen. • Music: Use a playlist to play sounds in each level. • Extras: Add a bonus scene, customisable keyboard commands, or a credits screen. Features: • 2 Player PVP • Resizable Level and Upgrades • Aesthetic Customisation • Interactive Enemy Cinematics • Cinematic Griefing • Lots of Power Ups • All of the Characters can share upgrades • Different Character Types • Customisable Characters • Customisable Fonts and Font Sizes • Save and Load while Paused • No AdsQ: How do you add an extra element to the top of the `each` loop I want to be able to add an extra element into the HTML of each element within an each loop. For example, I have the following code: #create some data # one entry per c9d1549cdd

Time before Crisis: Time in crisis of the universe. It is a game where we test our reaction to the problem of existence. It is an experiment to analyze the escape behavior from the humanity. Time in Crisis will show us what we can do if we understand what we are facing and have the courage to fight. We will see on the game map the new situation that the planet are suffering from. We will know how the characters should behave on this situation. We will see what are the exact obstacles in the planet. There are three types of aliens that will attack the player in this game. Three types of categories that we will have in game. These categories are vary from character to character. 1. One category are the followers. One of their mission is to protect the planet. They will show to the player how valuable is the life. 2. The second category are the attacker. They are a kind of plants. In this character they have 3 status. To help the planet and defend it, then you will see them as a hero. The other two states are in danger state or offensive state. 3. The third category are the aggressor. The seed of the offensive of this character are disease. They are also the plants. But unlike the other type of alien, they are very aggressive, they will try to attack the planet. Each character has different skill in game. Each character has one specific skill. 1. One of the skill are the flying, this character can fly in the game and use their skill in this way. (2 types of flying skill) - Using fly skill to move up to a platform. - Using fly skill to climb up one wall. 2. Another skill is invisibility. This character can use this skill by entering in the shadow of the wall, or by shadow walking. Then they will remain invisible and can be out of the sight of the camera. 3. The third skill is unique. It is the only skill that can destroy other players in game. If your character is corrupted then there is a chance that other players can be damaged too. This skill is still developing so we need your support in order to improve more. You are one of the group that will escape the planet. Don't you know how to save the planet? Do you know how to control the situation? Can you understand what should we do to be a hero? Can you understand how this situation will make the space of the planet changed? Are
