An open-world sci-fi themed experience that's perfectly suitable to be played with friends. Outstanding visuals and an amazing soundtrack. A fully voiced and scripted narrative about the journey of a scientist in the near future. A first person experience, with lots of interaction and puzzles. A Sci-Fi horror experience taking place in an animated world. Setting up a story and making something fresh and original. Writing and scriptwriting by myself with a full voice cast. An incredible soundtrack composed by my friend and sci-fi composer, Kasper Lund. A big thanks to my friend Giancarlo Pajetta (aka Giancarlo Pogolotti, Grammy nominee) for the illustration and for being my second editor! An interesting combination of 2D and 3D art and effects. A great work with immersive environments. A unique set of characters, like a mother who could be your own, who loves the impossible and has the will to not let it die. Different cities and a giant world with underground mining. An amazing soundtrack. Amazing game mechanics. Lots of content, like minigames, achievements, customisation, different endings. Another attempt to show why 2018 can't get here soon enough.

Sincerely yours, Paolo Pellegrino

About The Game Development Early Access first year. Game written in Unity 5, including lots of custom code. 2D and 3D art and animation. 2 voices - one for the player and one for the main character. Full script and voiced written by me. All story and script written by me. Tons of custom art and effects. A deep and rich main character. Several puzzle mechanics, like inventory and puzzles. Several location-based challenges. Different endings for the main character and the player. Ending modes like replay, mosaic and full exploration mode. A completely unique world. A sci-fi set up, with different cities, underground mines and different levels in each one. A sci-fi-ish soundtrack. An industrial, terrifying feeling and atmosphere. Lots of handmade art and effects. A minimalistic vibe for a more immersive experience. The game is being released as a digital download on Steam.

The game is already out but in this first year I'm making it more polished and very much better. However, if you want to play it before

At its core, the game is a standard city-building game. It's pretty simple. As you evolve your civilization, you'll build a city. Then you'll go and conquer other territories, which gives you resources and more land to play with, while building and conquering more cities. You can build and manage your civilization's technology tree, which makes it easier to build units. You can build units to defend your kingdom from attackers and control the warfront. You can manage the economy, which controls your country's own wealth and how that affects what units you can build. All of the 'base' building is automated and managed through menus, so the player is not bogged down with repetitive or boring tasks. Of course, you still have your base building and management options for more in-depth management. There's also the option for skirmish or multiplayer wars against the AI. Presentation: Graphically, the game is very detailed, smooth and polished. It looks like a comic book. One of the biggest standouts is the feature in the Gameplay window, in which the game presents a window with a miniature map of the landscape and a graphical representation of your kingdom. The menus are very slick and easy to navigate. The in-game interface is simple and user friendly. Game Audio: Music and sound effects are very satisfying, fitting perfectly with the game atmosphere. If the graphics are a stand out, then the sounds really are a big selling point for the game.

Overall: Valhalla Hills is a unique game that really does have a completely different feel from other city-building games. Gameplay: I give the game a 9 out of 10 for its gameplay. Graphics: I give the game a 8.5 out of 10 for its graphics. Sound: I give the game a 9 out of 10 for its sound. In-game Interface: I give the game a 7 out of 10 for its in-game interface. Longevity: The game comes with a disc. Overall: I give the game a 7 out of 10 for its longevity. Rating: 5/5 Overall: Gameplay: Graphics: Sound: In-Game Interface: Longevity: Final Rating: 7/10
Gameplay: 8.5 Graphics: 8.5 Sound: 8.5 In-Game Interface: 7.5 Longevity: 7.5

. "That seems about right, even with Starbreeze's phenomenal profits." "It doesn't sound like business is up." "Yes, not that up." "There's been little upward movement in the last year." " Really?" " Danko, shut up." "Yes, sir." "Well, I'm sure that's why you're all up here!" "Count it." "I think you can," "Mr. Danko." "Right." "Now where is it?" "Mr. Danko, how could you?" "My gum's all over the floor!" "How dare you forget one!" "So... little snack?" "How did I do?" "Thanks!" "I'm not here." "Come on." "This was your idea, but you can't just run away now." "Uh-uh." "Mm." "The ship says that CFO Mullins was fired three months ago for missing an improper expense reimbursement and falsifying expense records." "Danko again." "I knew I didn't like him the moment he started talking!" "Danko was the sole suspect, which surprises me because the object on that tape is the public restroom at the airport." "Ah, yes." "Our famous restroom, where I would warm my hands and, on occasion, could find an illicit lover." "Now to get us all started, the show that we're working on today has taken the Hot Enough For You team to the ladies' room to see if it gets hot in there and whether they should have a whole line of lacy panties." "All right." "Let's check it out." "Fire it up." "Welcome to Hot Enough For You." "Our show that's gonna make your gas explode." "Our theme is international travel." "We're going to a country that is the stew of all these cultures." "That's India." "Wanna kill it?" "Let's kill it." "Let's start with India." "Do you ever travel?" "Yes, welcome to India." "We aren't very good friends." "Can you explain that?" "We have language, we have food, we have really, really big cows." "But they haven't had much contact with the rest of the world." "Would you?" "Tell us about it?" "I'm glad I'm just on

LIVE ACTION SCARY SLINGSHOT SPORT! Scary Maze is a 1 to 4 player SLINGSHOT adventure where you try to destroy as many zombies as you can while avoiding traps and traps. What is ZombiEats? ZombiEats is a free, open source game that provides you with an entertaining puzzle adventure to solve. You play as the Zombie Slinger and you use your slingshot to damage the zombies while collecting their brains for your meals. Zombie Slinger was designed to be a free game to develop for your own purposes (not a dead clone). Therefore we are very careful to not add any ads or make money from you. You are free to share Zombie Slinger but if you make any money, please donate it to your favorite charity. How to play: SCARY MODE - In this mode your goal is to help a Zombie move towards the exit through the maze, while you collect all the brains on your way and avoid traps and hazards. At the end of each level the level will be judged and the top 30 players can move on to the next level. GUN FUN - In this mode you have to shoot zombies to get the max amount of food. The level ends as soon as you run out of ammo. MONSTER MANIA - This is a survival mode where you are up against hundreds of zombies, you have one shot and must manage to shoot and duck until the level ends and you gain some food. ULTIMATE GOLD - In this mode you have to collect the most amount of food and use the most brains before you die. SAVE THE PEER - In this mode you have to complete the level, but you must protect a peer that is on the level and survives. If the peer dies you lose the game. Note: The levels are randomly generated, we cannot guarantee that they are the same every time you play. What's New: 2020 - New level added - Dynamic Monsters - New level added - Dynamic Traps - New level added - Complete Catastrophe Mode - New level added - Progression System - Help bubbles added to the Help menu - Additional menus added - Improved tracking, performance, and porting Developer notes: A lot of work went into this and I'll try to give a brief overview of the changes we did to improve this game. - Dynamic Menu System 1.
