ChillaxVR is a 3D world of relaxation, a place of silence and solitude. Experience our magic VR where you are the leader and creator of your own experience. The history of VR is full of dangers. The user can lose himself in games where he will find himself in a strange world without control. ChillaxVR is different. It is a short, fascinating and relaxing experience with a real sense of immersion. You become the hero of the game as the terrain changes and your surroundings vanish, merging with the environment around you. ChillaxVR was released in September 2018, created by the unique development studio FUNKO. The first and best way to talk to people is now available as a Virtual Reality chat app, and it's called, appropriately enough, Chat VR. Chat VR is the first and only chat VR app and is available for most smartphones on both iOS and Android – compatible with Oculus Go and Gear VR. On mobile, open the app and type away, chat to friends and watch hilarious videos starring Chris and Candace, or join exciting games with your friends. Once you've logged into the app and made a room for yourself, you'll be able to converse with members of the Room1 community in VR, no matter what device they're using. Members can also join and become 'friends' if they're not already in your room. On Gear VR and Oculus Go, join a room and choose from a variety of features, including a 'private' mode where only the members in that room can view you, a 'hotlist' feature so that you can see who's joining and leaving that room, and the ability to talk to the hosts of the room if you have questions. If you're an iPhone user, we're working on adding real-time conversations to the app. We're still working on compatibility with the 'old' chat app, so if you like Chat VR, stay tuned! Give a Spin VR Remember the old arcade games where you could spin a wheel and see the screen spin? Give a Spin VR is the most authentic version of that experience you'll find – and it's only on the Gear VR. Turn a dial on the side of the Gear to change between a 360 degree top-down look (like a classic arcade cabinet), a slanted 270 degree look (like old arcade games

Features Key:

Unlockable 'Games From the Moon' folder
Unlockable 'No Mercy' folder
Unlockable own skins for radio stations
Freerunning & random audio content

VGMScratches.DBX

With the 'Games From the Moon' folder unlocked you get unlimited access to scratch songs from games that are up on Steam.

After unlocking the 'Games From the Moon' folder then you'll own all the files scattered in various folders of the 'Games from the Moon' folder that were stored on your friends computers.

These scratch songs are cached in the 'GameData/Mods' folder of the game.

Adding these scratch songs to your game removes the songs from your friends computer.

- Unlockable subfolders
- Creation of DynamicSongs:
 - gamecategory controller: selects the defined game categories with its own custom view
- Creation of DynamicText:
 - player affecties: this creates several newsplays that react to the rulership and republic/totalitarian difficulty. This means:
 - wolverhampton flags shoots gold star icons onto a group of subdomains of the map and sends them to players

VGMScratches.DBX

With the 'No Mercy' folder unlocked you get access to the original fast version of the files in 'No Mercy' folder created by Xyon for his Dignitas project.

These scratch songs are cached in the 'GameData/Mods' folder of the game.

Adding these scratch songs to your game removes the songs from your friends computer. To play them you'll have to use 'Volume 1 - Normal Difficulty' or higher.

The State Department said it had won the bid to sell up to $1 billion in anti-tank weapons to Ukraine and a Patriot missile defense system to defend the country from Russian incursions. "The United States is helping Ukraine develop its defense capabilities," State Department spokeswoman Marie Harf told reporters Wednesday. "We want to do everything we can to help them and this is one way." Harf said the deal would "not be done under the same circumstances that they were done the last time (the U.S. last sold weapons to Ukraine in 2004)." The sale was announced days before a deadline that expires Thursday at midnight and she said the Pentagon c9d1549cdd

What's new:

: A Trailblazer in the Prevention of Spiritual Abuse (How to Get Free) Young and old alike, Christian or not, locked in the darkness of demonic oppression. Out of faith, you were set free from your oppression. But you may be wondering, “How did the devil get my client?” or “What happened and why do I pray for healing and restoration and then people keep running back into the darkness?!” The spiritual abuse recovery community always talks about freedom in Christ, but I know that’s not the source of their healing. They don’t just “believe” in freedom in Christ; their faith has been challenged and distorted, broken and imbalanced, leaving them broken. But how do you “end-run” programming that has created that spiritual abuse and spiritual imbalance? Many pastors, individuals, counselors, and pastors of churches actively avoid talking about spiritual abuse. They refer to it as simply “emotional abuse” or “identity theft.” It is, to be sure, challenging to receive a long-held and “legitimate” theological/church-initiated bondage to sin, shame, fear, and a belief that my worth can be determined by my human sexuality. It is terrifying and debilitating to endure the violation of my physical body because of a clear refusal to release me from the unbridled desire to leech on my vitality. They encourage me to take no responsibility for my own. And then there is the reality of the ongoing sexual abuse of children and adults. The thing is, spiritual abuse is still a blind spot to many mental-health professionals, licensed pastoral counselors, and social-service providers, even among those that profess the same faith as this author. Together, as He said in Isaiah 45:11, He made them two; they will have to contend with one another; God will surely take up their cause. There, He expects people to know how to navigate Satan’s tactics and to interact with one another in a way that is both powerful and loving. This blind spot is true for my peers, too. They know what Satan is doing and are called to stop it, but they don’t know how to interact with one another in a way that actually touches the heart of the problem. For instance, some of them are oh-so-nice and kind to
