HUMANITY HAS BEEN FALLEN. A great epidemic spreads across the land. Monsters show up in your town and you try to fight back. Wants in your city grow and grow. It's time to grow up! CLIMB HILLS TO SURVIVE! You live in the one of the surviving towns, a place with a colorful history. A place with an old tower and a pretty park. Now you are part of a large community of people. While you live peacefully, you can always wish for something new and better to survive. A horde of monsters roam the city and you will need to combine your skills to keep the city alive. MINIGUN WON'T HELP! A huge horde of monsters are living in your city. You can fight them to death, but it is a losing battle. Your better weapon though is a huge pistol. Everything will be cool if you can keep your distance. A horde of monsters can make a lot of noise so try to control your footsteps. SURVIVAL IS EVERY DAY! This is a game about survival. You are in control of the environment. You have to make sure that the proper buildings and things will last for a long time. A building that's too old will collapse and you will have to start again. Your resources are limited, so you can only build things a certain amount of times. Your food will start to run out if the freshness of it gets too low. Monsters roam your city, and you need to be prepared. The day by day life is similar to survival in the wilderness. TAKE CARE OF YOUR WONDERFUL CITY! Your city is a bright place with a nice look. You can improve your town and its infrastructure by collecting resources and by buying items. Start out by choosing from a handful of buildings, picking from more than 50 upgrades. You can improve your tower, a hospital, a police station, a factory, a library, power plants and a lot of more. USE FRIENDSHIP TO YOUR ADVANTAGE! Of course you can build buildings or objects by yourself, but you can also combine them. Make a beautiful factory with a police station next to it, or a library or a home for your friends. Everything you can build will affect your life. Fight fires, gather resources, collect artifacts, buy weapons, build supplies, repair appliances, cure diseases and hire more c9d1549cdd

- Simple and amusing game design, very friendly to the eye. - Useful recharging power - Very detailed graphics, especially for a game for small devices. - Play with the forest rabbit to a variety of amusing tasks. - Get to know your way around the game. For the PC version: - Support for Windows XP, 7, 8, 8.1, 10.- Support for the gamepadQ: A couple of questions about importing data via excel The first issue I'm having is getting a date field in excel into SQL Server 2012. When I import the xlsx file into sql server, the date field gives an output of YYYY-MM-DD. I need the date field to be formatted as MM/DD/YYYY. I've tried casting the datetime column to a varchar and concatenating the "-" character to the field, but that didn't work. Any suggestions? A: If you want to convert it to string and then convert to date then you can do this way:- select convert(date,replace(YOUR_COLUMN, '-', '.')) Instead of replace you can use find in this case. UPDATE Check this ms-access coding for date conversion.
